

Groovy News!

- This week our story was about a scarecrow. We worked on inference and vocabulary skills.
- In math we continued working on place value and numbers 10-20. We finished our chapter and will begin our new chapter soon.
- We did some writing this week about what we are thankful for and created the turkeys which are hanging in our classroom.
- We are really focused on learning our phonograms, practicing our sight words, and learning how to sound out and read short words in reading. New books should be in your child's take-home reading book bag today.
- During art we did a directed drawing of a scarecrow and then water painted.
- In Bible this week we finished learned about listening to God in the story of Samuel.

Bible Verse

Zechariah 4:6 Not by might nor by power, but by my Spirit, says the Lord Almighty.

(Each student will say this Bible verse to me on Friday, November 30.) Our friend Alex will have the opportunity to say this verse in chapel on Wednesday, November 28.

Book-It

Just a reminder that the Book-It
log for November is due on Friday,
November 30.

Christmas Boxes

Thank you for your support! Our class made their goal of bringing in one box to represent every student! We donated 21 boxes!!!

Vocabulary (for Nov. 30)

active: busy doing lots of things antlers: hard body parts that grow from reindeer
Arctic: the area surrounding the North Pole mammal: a warm-blooded animal that has fur/hair and feeds its baby milk
