

Groovy News!

This week was a favorite for most of the class as our literacy topic was dinosaurs! We learned a lot of big vocabulary words, read stories, played dinosaur math and reading games, found treasures in an icy dinosaur egg, and learned about fossils. In addition to our literacy learning, we also learned some new sight words and phonograms, finished our chapter on equal parts in math, and learned how our homes, the clothes we wear, and the music we listen to all contribute to our culture during social studies. We began learning about pronouns in grammar...little words that take the place of nouns. During Bible we learned another name for Jesus! He is our Good Shepherd and we are his sheep!
